

WEDNESDAY EVENING CONCERTS

Concerts are free and performed from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in Huntley Hall at the Village Center. Before entering the auditorium, please turn off any cell phones or electronic devices. If you arrive after the concert has begun, please wait for a break in the performance before entering.

Wednesday, May 7 — Minter and Minter— Marilyn Minter is a well-known vocalist with appearances in many jazz clubs, including Blues Alley. George started out as an original member of the famed One O'Clock Jazz Band from North Texas and went on to arrange and play for military and Hollywood studio performances.

Wednesday, May 14 — Emery Davis Trio — Clarinetist Emery Davis is always a crowd favorite. The son of famed orchestra leader Meyer David, Emery has a treasure trove of tales and songs in his repertoire.

Wednesday, May 21 — Kinor Dancers— Perennial favorite Kinor Dance Company of the Jewish Community Center of Greater Washington returns to Friendship Heights with a lively program that combines Israeli and modern dance and music. Company members performing under the direction of Artistic Director and Choreographer, Barbara Supovitz, include Julia Balsley, Miriam Cramer, Kristie Genovese, Rachel Elazar, Carol Orth, Barbara Supovitz and Alicia Youdale.

Wednesday, May 28— Andrew Luse — Andrew Luse began studying piano at the age of eight, performing his first concerto two years later with the New England Youth Ensemble. He earned a B.A. in history and a certificate of music from Princeton University, and later received his master's degree in piano performance from the Peabody Institute of Johns Hopkins University. He was an Artist-in-Residence from 2005-2006 at Strathmore Hall in Bethesda.
